

Women tell of triumphs

Cullen Wines hosted the third annual Margaret River Chamber of Commerce and Industry International Women's Day celebration last Thursday.

Chamber deputy president Rebecca Hannan was the event MC while women from the region enjoyed morning tea.

Regional chamber chief executive Kitty Prodonovich and

WA Regional Small Business Award recipients Georgina Wilkinson and Melissa Harrison shared stories of hardship and success as women in business, while Justine Arrow's tale of personal struggles reduced the crowd to tears.

Cullen Wines managing director Vanya Cullen thanked guests and the chamber.

YOUR STARS

Aries

(March 21 - April 20)

You loathe deception, so if you feel someone's acting suspiciously you can't help but investigate. Just don't pry needlessly.

Taurus

(April 21 - May 20)

It's likely that you mean what you say, but what others hear is a different matter. Be delicate in your communications.

Gemini

(May 21 to June 21)

Geminis somehow manage to persuade a guardian angel to work overtime on their behalf.

Here's a week when there's little to lose and much to gain.

Cancer

(June 22 - July 22)

Recent hurts should soon be healed. Health, wealth and career all get the thumbs up, with many plans hitting the bullseye.

Leo

(July 23 - August 23)

A burning attraction is setting off real-life sparks. Make a move and enjoy the fireworks.

Virgo

(August 24 - September 22)

This week brings a double-edged sword. On one hand you have Mars urging you to take professional risks, while Neptune creates confusion. This may take the form of a scandal, so take care with business associations.

Libra

(September 23 - October 23)

Someone isn't being entirely straight with you. Hold off signing anything until you have all the facts. Stay cautious.

Scorpio

(October 24 - November 22)

Outdated love or friendships may end — giving you the freedom to rediscover a new dating scene. Don't worry if you're out of practice. Great things happen when you least expect them.

Sagittarius

(November 23 - December 21)

You're encouraged to work on intuition. How wonderful to be able to act on ideas, without your usual procrastination. Love also features this week.

Capricorn

(December 22 - January 20)

You often keep others guessing. This week is different — you volunteer information, minus the sugar coating and clever word play.

Aquarius

(January 21 - February 18)

You captivate friends and colleagues with your dry humour and sense of fun. Midweek, life turns a tad more serious, especially if you're offered the chance of a new job or training course.

Pisces

(February 19 - March 20)

You may feel on the outer for the moment, but trust your instincts anyway. You're just ahead of the times. Push on patiently.

Gypsy-folk band to EnthuZe with music

ADVERTORIAL

Margaret River gypsy-folk band EnthuZe will launch their new album at Prevelly's Sea Gardens Cafe tomorrow evening.

The five-member local band have toured the South West for the past three years, regularly playing at Goodfellas, Sea Gardens and Colonial Brewery, and venturing south to Manjimup and Denmark for festivals.

After a brief hiatus from the music scene, their new album Aroha Nui expresses their journey during the past few years.

Named after a traditional Maori phrase meaning "with deep affection" — often used when signing off a letter — the album comes on the back of a tour of India last year. Vocalist and guitarist Brett Wilson said the tour was nothing short of interesting.

"We played bars, restaurants and festivals, (and) a wide range of venues in India, some of which showed the true Indian culture," he said

"In some places the power would drop in and out, that kind of thing, but all in all, it was a very enjoyable tour."

EnthuZe will take to the stage at Sea Gardens from 4pm-7pm.

Their album Aroha Nui will also be available for purchase.
